- C. To begin the game a kick off shall be taken from the middle of the field. The opposing team must line up behind their defending 6 yard line.
- D. When a ball goes out of play, the game is restarted in one of the following ways:
  - a. A ball going out over the side lines is restarted with a throw in from the opposing team to whoever last contacted the ball before it left play.

The ball must be passed first before a shot can be taken at the goal. The indirect free kick encourages passing and team work.
  - i. Any infractions occurring inside the 6 yard goal area will result in the ball being placed on the 6 yard line parallel to the point of the foul.
- E. Although there can be attacking, defensive or supporting roles, the coaching of rigid positions for these young players is discouraged. Kids should be running the field and getting as many touches on the ball as possible, not playing rigid positions.
- F. Coaches are encouraged to introduce the concepts of positional roles. A diamond formation with one attacking player, two midfield (multi-dimensional), and one defensive player is encouraged.
